Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim(s) 24, 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

As to claim 24, 25, the claimed limitations recited “A computer program product directly loadable into the internal memory of a computer within a Radio Network Controller...comprising the software code portions for performing the steps of...” are non-statutory because it does not define any structural and functional interrelationships between computer hardware, and the software application which permit the computer program’s functionality to be realized, as they are not “act” being performed.

The correction is required in appropriate.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-23, and 26-57 are allowed.

If claims 24, 25 overcome 35 U.S.C 101, and would be allowable if rewritten with qualify as a 101 statutory. The application will be considered for allowance.
